We Finally Leave Michigan For A Ride...

Rachael, Becke, and I decided we wanted to ride the Biltmore to ride in early winter. Becke wanted to ride the 100 mile ride with a friend. Rachael and I wanted a chance to go somewhere fun. This was going to be Rachael's new horse Dasani's first 50! We decided that if we went a competitive pace that our two could probably make it.

We left on Wed. as soon as Rachael was out of school. We drove to outside of Lexington and stayed at a horse hotel. Great place, large stalls. It was quite convenient and a great break for the night for all.

In the morning we finished the drive to the Biltmore. Arrival was easy, but lots of trailers! We found a spot, ok so it took two spots, but I will not go into that one, as then I will grumble about FEI...

We had a day to visit the gardens of the Biltmore, to relax and look around. The people around us were great. We had riders and draggers right around us. So it made for an enjoyable stay with lots of sharing.

Our ride was beautiful, lots of hills, (Game is still mad at me...) Dasani loved it. He was the leader most of the way. We rode around most of the property, both close and the distant locations of the property. There are so many trails. We had pretty views of the rolling hills and a few glances of the Biltmore home. Water was available throughout most of the trail.

Rachael ended up with 1st Junior. There were only 2 juniors in the 50, and one dropped out. I was 36th out of 70. I was thrilled! We thought we were at the end of all of the riders! We did our ride in about 7.5 hours, which was perfect! My horse was tired, but I think Dasani wanted to get back on the trail again!

Rachael did a marvelous job on her ride. She was smiling and kidding with the other riders the whole time. The timers and vets really made her feel very confident!

Becke had an enjoyable ride, but the humidity back in the hills was a bit much for Star. She pulled him at about the half way mark. Looking back it was ok though, as later on it rained and was VERY humid!

We had some of the best, ok the best riding food I have ever had. Wonderful buffet and hamburger cookout. I imagine breakfast was good, but we left early for home that day.

We had a great time away! So great to see a new trail, watch the "real" riders and just take in the whole experience. Thanks so much to my husband Kurt, for telling us to go on this ride and get away. We will never forget our time together! Becke, thanks for putting up with us! To the Biltmore managers, volunteers and vets, thanks so much for the hospitable ride, we are so glad to have been part of it!

New Hopkins Creek Trail Map Available

Go to www.HopkinsCreekRide.com web site to download the new map. We changed the 10 mile loop a little bit to eliminate the road riding down Lanning Road. The 10 mile loop now crosses Lanning Road and runs down a 2-track through the woods approximately parallel to Lanning Road. We are hoping that this is a small improvement for this years ride. Denny & Jill Byard

Thank you to GLDRA for the beautiful flowers. I really appreciate the thought, and hope to be back at the rides in the Fall. I'm getting stronger everyday and hope to start riding in a couple of weeks.

I Ride ... from Linda Cole

That seems like such a simple statement. However and many women who ride know it is really a complicated matter. It has to do with power and empowerment. Being able to do things you might have once considered out of reach or ability.

I have considered this as I shovel manure, fill water barrels in the cold rain, wait for the vet/farrier/electrician/hay delivery. Change a tire on a horse trailer by the side of the freeway or cool a gelding out before getting down to the business of drinking a cold beverage after a long ride. The time, the money, the effort it takes to ride calls for dedication. At least I call it dedication, both my ex-husbands call it 'The Sickness'.

It's a sickness I've had since I was a small girl bouncing my model horses and dreaming of the day I would ride a real horse. Most of the women I ride with understand the meaning of 'The Sickness'. It's not a sport, it's not a hobby, it's what we do and, in some ways, who we are as women and human beings.

I ride. I hook up my trailer and load my gelding. I haul to some trail head somewhere, unload, saddle, whistle up my dog and I ride. I breathe in the air, watch the sunlight filter through the trees and savor the movement of my horse. My shoulders relax, a smile rides my sunscreen smeared face. I pull my ball cap down and let the real world fade into the tracks my horse leaves in the dust. Time slows, flying insects buzz loudly looking like fairies. My gelding flicks his ears and moves down the trail. I can smell his sweat and it is perfume to my senses. Time slows. The rhythm of the walk and the movement of the leaves become my focus. My saddle creaks and the leather rein in my hand softens with the warmth.

I consider the simple statement; I ride. I think of all I do because I ride. Climb granite slabs, wade into a freezing lake, race a friend through the manzanita all the while laughing and feeling my heart in my chest. Other days just the act of mounting and dismounting can be a real accomplishment. Still I ride, no matter how tired or how much my seat bones or any of the numerous horse related injuries hurt.

I ride. And I feel better for doing so. The beauty I've seen because I ride amazes me. I've ridden out to find lakes that remain for the most part, unseen. Caves, dark and cold beside rivers full and rolling are the scenes I see in my dreams. The granite stairway at Echo Summit, bald eagles on the wing and bobcats on the prowl add to the empowerment and joy in my heart.

I think of the people, mostly women, I've met. I consider how competent they all are. Not a weenie amongst the bunch. We haul 40 foot rigs, we back into tight spaces without clipping a tree, we set up camp, tend the horses, we cook and keep safe. We understand and love our companions, the horse. We respect each other and those we encounter on the trail. We know that if you are out there riding, you also shovel, fill, wait and doctor. Your hands are a little rough and you travel without makeup or hair gel. You do without to afford 'The Sickness' and probably, when you were a small girl, you bounced a model horse while you dreamed of riding a real one. "My treasures do not chink or glitter, they gleam in the sun and neigh in the night."

There's nothing like a horse!

I would like to thank GLDRA for the beautiful plant that I received during my stay in the hospital. I will transplant it into my garden as soon as my hands are in full working order again. It was a very long six weeks with no hands and depressing to have this accident right before ride season was to start but all your cards and phone calls helped me to survive the long days. Thanks to all of you for thinking of me. Julie Roe

There's nothin' in life that's worth doin', if it cain't be done from a horse ...

There is just as much horse sense as ever, but the horses have most of it ...

The child who ran weeping to you with a cut finger is now brought home, smiling gamely, with a broken collar bone and incredible contusions-'it wasn't Jezebel's fault, Dad.' ...

Show me your horse, and I will tell you who you are ...

It is not enough for a man to know how to ride; he must know how to fall ...

Horses lend us the wings we lack ...

A stubborn horse walks behind you, an impatient horse walks in front of you, but a noble companion walks beside you ...

All horses deserve, at least once in their lives, to be loved by a little girl ...

There is something about the outside of a horse that is good for the inside of a man ...

There are only two emotions that belong in the saddle; one is a sense of humor and the other is patience ...

If your horse says no, you either asked the wrong question or asked the question wrong ...

Your horse can only be as brave as you are ...
