ENDURANCE CLINIC & MOCK RIDE

PART 1: CLASSROOM PRESENTATION

JULY 15 BRIGHTON HOLIDAY INN EXPRESS

Classroom presentation of all you need to know about distance riding in the comfort of an air-conditioned meeting room, without the distractions of weather and bugs. Distance clinic being presented by Lisa M Germann, manager of the Brighton CTR ride (over 20 years) and an experienced Endurance & Competitive Trail Rider with 39 years of experience and over 9,000 competition miles.

Where: to be held at the Brighton Holiday Inn, South, 6910 Whitmore Lake Road, Brighton, MI 48116

Water & snacks provided. In close proximity to many fine eating establishments.

COST: $45. SPACE LIMITED TO 15 ATTENDEES. PLEASE PRE-REGISTER.

PART 2: MOCK DISTANCE RIDE

AUG 19 BRIGHTON RECREATION AREA

Where: Brighton Recreation Area, Equestrian Staging Area. 6360 Chilson Rd, Howell, MI 48843

Water & snacks provided

The mock ride will consist of a 7-8 mile mock ride. Each rider will go out on trail with an experienced distance rider (in groups no bigger than 3). Each clinic participant will be walked through the entire ride process from Vetting-In their horse, to riding the trail, and Vetting-Out their horse at the end.

COST $70. PLEASE PRE-REGISTER. MOCK RIDE FORM MUST BE PRINTED AND HANDED IN.

Participants can attend either or both of these events. The classroom portion is scheduled a month before the Mock Ride to give those who wish to participate in the Mock Ride preparation time to get out and ride their horses. The clinics will cover Endurance Rides & Competitive Trail Rides.

Attendance for both Part 1 & Part 2 is strongly suggested as this will give you the entire Distance experience. For those who wish to practice camping with their horses, the clinic manager will be camping at Brighton Equestrian Campground the weekend of the Mock Ride. However, reservations and site selection are entirely up to the participant. Reservations for the equestrian camp can be made at Michigan.gov. or 1-800-44-PARKS.

Helmets are not required for adults, however they are strongly suggested.
